【Course Objectives : 授業の到達目標】

The goal of this course is to be able to communicate at B1* level in Japanese. B1 is a level where you are able to talk coherently, understand the important points of texts on familiar topics, and deal with a range of situations by yourself, for example, while travelling in Japan. It will help students obtain communicative skills for levels N3 of the Japanese Language Proficiency Test. (*The levels of JF Standard for Japanese Language Education are the same as those used in the Council of Europe's CEFR.)

【Course Summary : 授業の概要】

1. Quizzes about the previous / next lesson's content.
2. Learning new words, expressions, sentence patterns and grammar of the lesson.
3. Exercises in speaking, listening, reading and writing.
4. Discussion, presentation, research and paper on the topic of the lesson.

【Study Required outside Class (Preparation etc): 事前・事後学習】

Before every lesson, students are expected to: 1. Prepare for the quizzes regarding the previous / next lesson, by memorizing words, expressions, sentence patterns and grammar. 2. Read the textbook and do its exercises. 3. Write some short essays, prepare for some presentations and making some small researches. (Frequency and subjects will depend on class conditions.)
