【Course Objectives : 授業の到達目標】

After taking this course you will be able to :

- Understand explanations you hear throughout student life.
- Read and understand sentences that make use of the vocabulary and grammar you have learned.
- Be considerate of others in conversations with friends and school staff.
- Explain what you know and experience, give opinions, and participate in discussions based on your experiences.
- Conduat a brief interview and summarize its content.

【Course Summary : 授業の概要】

This class is designed for students who have completed the beginner's class. Intermediate Japanese III and Intermediate Japanese IV are continuous and aim to improve the four core skills of reading, writing, speaking, and listening. The level of vocabulary and grammar used in class equates roughly to JLPT N3. We will cover familiar topics such as conversations in student life, student experiences, and other situations familiar to students. At the end of this course we will conduct an interview with Japanese students. In class we will emphasize communication between students and provide many opportunities to share experiences, opinions, and knowledge.

【Study Required outside Class (preparation, etc): 事前・事後学習】

Students are expected to check the class schedule details and information on the class Moodle daily. Additional learning materials such as audio tools and online practice materials can be downloaded there. Please read the grammar explanations in the textbook before class so you are well prepared. A quiz on Moodle to evaluate comprehension must be completed before each class. Class assignments need to be submitted on Moodle on time. Late submission or incomplete assignments will result in reduced scores.
