【Course Objectives: 授業の到達目標】

This course attempts to improve the abilities to think deeply and to express oneself freely, which were developed in Comprehensive Japanese A (IV) and Japanese Reading and Writing A (IV). As a result, this course will lead to the acquisition of a higher perspective. The goals of this course are:

- ・ To improve communication skills by using a variety of Japanese expressions.
- ・ To understand long and complex contents by reading and listening.
- ・ To be able to analyze issues in the Japanese society and the world from the perspective of other people and things, and therefore develop new values.

【Course Summary: 授業の概要】

This course aims to develop the four skills (listening, speaking, reading and writing) at a higher level and to strengthen grammar skills by using the textbook.

The course also incorporates extra-curricular activities, which enable students to develop their analytical skills through actual contact with Japanese society.

There are also many opportunities for discussions, debates and group work, which help students to develop their communication skills in Japanese, and to deepen their understanding of others and diverse value.

※Classes are student-led, and therefore, the topics for discussion may change according to their needs.

【Study Required outside Class (Preparation etc): 事前・事後学習】

Students must do their assignment before the deadline.

Students are required to study the vocabulary and Kanji characters in advance.

Students should pay careful attention to the feedback from classmates and teachers.
