【Course Objectives: 授業の到達目標】

This class is designed for students enrolled in Introductory Japanese A, Comprehensive Japanese A(I) and A(II) levels and help students develop their Japanese language skills in a fun and effective way through collaborative activities with Japanese students. In this cooperative learning class, international and Japanese students work together as classmates in group activities. Basically all discussions are conducted in Japanese.

The goal of this class is to:

- develop the four skills of Japanese in a well-balanced manner through these hands-on activities.
- understand Japanese culture and the lives of Japanese people.
- develop a high level of communication skills
- develop the ability to solve problems in cooperation with Japanese students.

【Course Summary: 授業の概要】

The main activities for this class will be determined by the interests of the students.

The following activities are tentatively planned.

- Team-building game
- What do your classmates like?
- Talk about yourself
- Exploring Fukuoka City

【Note: 履修上の注意】

In this class Japanese and international students work together using Japanese. For students who have never studied Japanese before, this class may be difficult. If you will follow us with effort, of course, you are welcome.

Regular attendance is necessary. Each absence without valid excuse will reduce by 3 points the full score assigned for this entire course. Perfect attendance for the entire semester will add 5 extra points to your final score. When you miss the class, you need to inform me of the reason by E-mail as soon as possible.

Class content is subject to change depending on the student's needs and the student's Japanese level.
