Semester 学期	SPRING 2024	Course Level 履修年次	N/A	Credits 単位	2	hrs/wks 時間数/週	2
【Course Objectives: 授業の到達目標】
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To increase understanding of the changes in “New” Japanese cinema from the 1980s onwards. • To analyze the reinvention of Japanese cinema through genres and the affect of globalization. • To investigate whether Japanese cinema reflects and shapes contemporary Japanese identities. • To acquire the technical and critical skills to discuss and “read” films in historical and socio-cultural contexts.
【Course Summary: 授業の概要】
Japanese cinema was said to have peaked in the 1950s and 1960s with directors like Akira Kurosawa and Nagisa Oshima, and was thought to have lull for 20 years thereafter. However, the resurgence of new directors and films in the late 1980s and 1990s once again focused the world’s attention on Japanese cinema. This course is an introduction to contemporary Japanese films from the 1980s to present. By focusing on major directors, themes and genres, students will acquire the fundamentals of critical and technical language necessary to discuss and analyze films. The primary goal of this course is to understand the reinvention and transformation of contemporary Japanese cinema.
【Study Required outside Class (Preparation etc): 事前・事後学習】
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students will be required to view films outside of classroom (either at a pre-arranged time or on their own) • Written discussion questions/comments and in-class participation count for a large portion of the grade. Therefore students are encouraged to do all readings and participate weekly during class.
