【Course Objectives: 授業の到達目標】

This course will develop students' skills in researching, discussing, and debating local and global issues more deeply in Japanese. The goals of this course are:

- To acquire the ability to understand others and express oneself effectively in Japanese.
- To brush up on students' Japanese grammar skills.
- To develop students' confidence and ability to make smooth, well-organized presentations.
- To understand written/ spoken topics with long, complicated content geared toward Japanese native speakers.
- To develop critical reading skills through intensive analysis of Japanese newspaper articles and authentic materials.

【Course Summary: 授業の概要】

This CLIL-based advanced Japanese course primarily aims to develop students' listening, speaking, and grammatical skills. Students will read assigned texts and/or watch assigned video clips as preparation for each class. Students will have ample opportunities for group work, including discussions and group projects.

(1) In the first half of the course, students will develop skills for effective speeches and dialogues through in-class opinion exchanges.

Specific class content will be determined from the list of social issues below, in accordance with the students' interests.

1. Working Environment
2. Declining Birthrate
3. Food-related Issues
4. Subculture
5. Educational Systems
6. Poverty and Inequality
7. Generative AI
8. Perspectives on Happiness
9. Lookism and Appearance Discrimination

(2) In the second half of the course, students will enhance their abilities to research, discuss, and debate local and global issues at a deeper level.

In addition to the main activities mentioned above, every Thursday session will focus on organizing and deepening the understanding of grammar.

【Study Required outside Class (Preparation etc): 事前・事後学習】

Preparation:

A vocabulary list will be provided before the class starts. Students are expected to look up the meanings of these words individually. During the lesson, questions will be asked regarding the current situation and issues in your home country. Students should activate their prior knowledge related to the topic.

Post-class Assignment:

After completing the lesson, students must submit a report summarizing the content. Any reports submitted after the deadline will receive a 50% deduction from the total possible score.
